Teacher attempts to put out blaze started by arsonists

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A PRIMARY school teacher battled fires after teenaged arsonists set alight patches of dead grass along the Grand Union Canal, near Giffard Park.

Jeff Sewell, 38, from Hainault Avenue, Giffard Park, left his home between 4.30pm and 4.45pm to walk his Golden Cocker Spaniel, Jessie, along the canal.

Approaching the bridge by Grafham Close, the Year 3 teacher at Giffard Park Primary School could hear a group of loud youths.

Mr Sewell told MK NEWS: "At the bridge by Grafham Close I heard a bunch of youths. There were between six and 10 of them, and they had clearly been drinking.

"One came up to me and said words to the effect of 'it's not us, it's just him lighting them all'. He was shirtless and wearing navy blue jogging bottoms.

"I saw a guy bent down over a pile of dead grass and I dialled 999 straight away."

Mr Sewell tied Jessie to a tree and tried to prevent the fire spreading.

He added: "I was more concerned with the flames. It was not a huge inferno but initially, it went quite high.

"I just kept stomping on the flames as I was talking to the 999 operator, but the fires kept spreading."

On his walk back home he saw firefighters tackling the larger blaze – estimated to have reached 40 metres by 10 at its peak.

He added: "I have friends who visited the scene afterwards and the local wildlife, such as mice and voles, has been decimated."

Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue Service were called at 4.29pm, and the fire was estimated to have reached 40 metres by 10 in area at its peak. A team of five firefighters were able to contain it after about 45 minutes.

Police are investigating arson attacks

FOLLOWING a number of suspected arsons attended by Buckinghamshire Fire and Rescue over the last two months, police would like to reassure residents they are investigating.

A spokesman from Thames Valley Police told MK NEWS officers are looking into the incidents that involved damage to vehicles.

All other incidents which are not being dealt with by police and have been left with Bucks Fire to determine the cause of fire.

Vehicles have been damaged in suspected arsons in Eaglestone on May 18, Wolverton on May 25 and Broughton on July 5. Any witnesses should police call 101.

A minute's silence for 7/7 victim Jonathan

YESTERDAY marked 10 years since the terrorist atrocities which changed Britain forever.

Milton Keynes joined the nation on Tuesday as it fell silent in memory of the 52 people killed and more than 700 who were injured in the attacks on underground trains and a bus in London on July 7, 2005.

The minute's silence took place at 11.30am at the centre:mk after a message was broadcast on the centre tannoy.

As MK NEWS reported in 2005, Jonathan Downey, 34, from Wolverton, lost his life in the Edgware Road Tube bomb blast. Mr Downey, who was born in Northamptonshire, was one of seven victims who died at the explosion at Edgware Road. He worked as a systems developer for Kensington Borough Council in London.

Following 7/7, flags flew at half-mast at Milton Keynes Council civic offices and extra police patrols were sent to Bletchley, Wolverton and Central Milton Keynes railway stations.

Two people ambushed in knifepoint robbery

A MAN and woman were ambushed in a terrifying knifepoint robbery that left one of them in hospital.

At midnight on Thursday, the two were walking in Furzton when two men jumped out from some bushes near Bickleigh Crescent. The first man demanded their phones and then punched the male victim causing him to fall to the floor. He then straddled him and continued to punch him before threatening him with a knife. The second offender stopped the woman from helping.

The male victim sustained concussion, swelling and bruising to his face and attended Milton Keynes University Hospital.

His wallet was stolen, which contained a driving licence, a cash card and quantity of cash. Both offenders then ran off in the direction of Redhuish Close.

Risking their lives: Swimmers in the Blue Lagoon during last week's heatwave

Calls for outdoor swimming pool

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

SWIMMERS who risk their lives ignoring warnings at the Blue Lagoon have no outdoor pool to enjoy the sun in Milton Keynes – and the council says that's unlikely to change.

Despite two deaths last summer, people of all ages snub the NO SWIMMING safety signs and venture into the deep waters of the man-made lake in Bletchley.

Buckinghamshire Fire & Rescue continue to stress the dangers of open-water swimming, and make daily visits to the site to advise revelers during the hot weather.

As MK NEWS reported last year, the nature reserve claimed the lives of 20-year-old Emily Johnson and 61-year-old Paul Allsop.

In both cases, the victims died as a result of being in the water.

But MKWeb readers, commenting on our Facebook page, argue people only swim in the lake because they have nowhere else to go.

The nearest outdoor pool to Milton Keynes is Woburn Lido.

On Facebook, Cheryl Norris commented: "Unless there's a free outdoor pool I doubt you'll ever stop people doing it."

Emily Johnson and Paul Allsop were killed in seperate incidents

Gemma McCann said: "Bletchley fun pool has gone, Wolverton outdoor pool has gone, Dolphin Splash Down has gone. I guess people still think this is more fun than bobbing about lane swimming."

But despite calls for a new outdoor pool to open in the city, Milton Keynes Council has admitted it just can't afford it and would rely on 'private sector' investment.

A spokesman from the council said: "We have invested and supported the development and enhancement of three public indoor pools in MK over the past six years: Wolverton Pool, Bletchley Leisure Centre Pool and Middleton Pool.

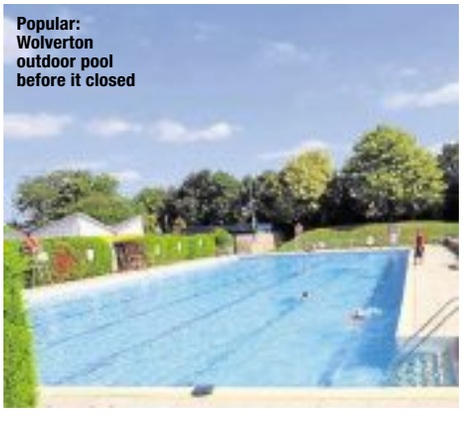
"The council's Sport and Active Communities Strategy has identified that we will need more pool space in the future but currently does not have the finance or land to develop such facilities.

"However we are aware that there are some initial plans for the National Bowl. It will be for the private sector to identify such opportunities into the future."

Richard Priest, head of the Bucks Fire community safety team, said: "We have been issuing advice through www.mkweb.co.uk and at the scene in a bid to prevent any further tragedies.

"Even good swimmers can be caught out by hidden dangers such as fast currents, deep holes, soft mud, weeds or rubbish. Any stretch of water, still or flowing, has the capability to kill."

Colin Wilderspin, from the council's community safety partnership Safer MK, added: "We would like the residents to enjoy the outdoors during the summer months. However, the only safe place to swim is in a swimming pool."



Popular: Wolverton outdoor pool before it closed

WOLVERTON outdoor pool was a popular venue before it was replaced by the leisure centre in Addington Avenue in 2012.

Dolphin Splashdown in Shenley Church End closed in 2009 following a fire. The popular family pool was indoor, but had two huge water flumes and a wave machine, and was not aimed at lane swimmers like most pools in Milton Keynes.

Talks are still ongoing with Milton Keynes Development Partnership and Moira Capital over plans for a water park at the National Bowl.

As MK NEWS revealed in 2014, Moira Capital proposed plans for the UK's largest water park, a sports village and events stage.

The plans proved popular with residents but the fate of the plans is still unknown.

Reject Agora plan

FUTURE Wolverton has significant concerns about the application from Brickhill Estates to redevelop the Agora in Wolverton which was covered in your article on MKWeb on 29 June.

As a community organisation we know the vast majority of local people want the Agora demolished, but we want what replaces it to be of the highest achievable quality.

For the last three years Future Wolverton have led the delivery of the Wolverton Town Centre Neighbourhood Plan which goes to public referendum on the 30th July. We are disappointed this application has come in before the Plan has had the chance to clear this final hurdle and, therefore, strictly does not have to comply with the wishes of local people.

The development proposed is not compliant with the Wolverton Town Centre Neighbourhood Plan and we believe it is not right for the Town.

Milton Keynes Council has clearly stated it remains committed to a strategy that could see the Agora compulsory purchased in order to facilitate redevelopment, and have confirmed that a budget of £2 million pounds is still allocated to this process, so we know the Brickhill Estates application is not the only chance for redevelopment to happen.

FOLLOW US ON TWITTER
and get the latest updates on decisions that affect YOU
@YourMKWeb

We therefore ask local people to respond to the council with their views about the application, and we ask councillors to reject the planning application for the Agora site which is being heard this Thursday.

Stack and pack 'em

I FOUND your lead story (Home plan put on hold) in this week's issue of your newspaper fasinating. But not for the reasons expressed by Linda Inoki or Cllrs Peter McDonald and Rob Middleton. Escpecially when Middleton says that "he remains confident Labour would meet its pledge of building 200 council homes every year from 2017 onwards." Which is political speak for "rack 'em, stack 'em, pack 'em in brick/concrete egg cartons. Creating modern ghettos. With the only real benefits for the developers and contactors.

Just a while ago, we had a major fire at a major building site for a private developer. But, even though it was under construction, I think it showed clearly how much damage and potential loss of life exists in these so-called modern developments.

Don't kid yourself that any blame would be levelled at the developers, contractors or Fire Service. Why? Because they all will say the same thing: that they meet the fire standards.

Except that those standards don't cover their design or the floorplans for any property. Nor does it cover the numbers of local fire stations or their locations. With the additional times it would take for applicances to respond in an emergency... under the worst conditions.

But, even more important is the fact that since a large contingent of rentals are in the privte sector, those tenants will be forced to pay the increased rents due to any shortfalls which come about. Remembering also that the majority of those rents are being paid out of council funds (and taxpayers' money.)

Let's not forget that no matter how much money they lose, due to incompetence, these civil servants responsible can't or won't be terminated. And, as you can see from the simplistic statements of our local councillors, they have no idea.

YOUR SAY ON CINEMA

Milton Keynes Council has announced that deliveries of pink sacks will start again to homes later this month. But on our Facebook page, MKWeb readers believe it's time to evaluate how we recycle in the city.

Tina Hall: It's good that they are delivering pink sacks again, they just need to bring back black sacks.

Debbie Bradley: Northamptonshire and Bedforshire don't have sacks, it all goes in bins. We should have bins too, much easier and cleaner, when are we going to catch up with our neighbours?

Natalie Walden: I don't understand why they don't provide every house with a black wheelie bin the same as the green ones, as it would stop the cats getting in the bin bags and making a mess, as well as rats and foxes trying to find food. All of Northamptonshire have them. My parents live in Towcester and every house has a black, green and a blue wheelie bin so why not Milton Keynes?

Samantha Jane Coster: I think they should provide big wheelie bins for waste. So much easier. And I have lived in cities that have provided them before! Stops trash getting everywhere because of the foxes/ birds/ ripped bin bags and stops rodents. I think a black bin for general waste, pink bin for recycling and the green for garden and food waste as usual. You wouldn't need pink sacks at all. Could go straight into the bin as you clean everything anyway.

Tragic: Edward, 79, tragically committed suicide by leaping to his death from this footbridge

Pensioner had 'lots to live for'

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

AN ELDERLY cancer sufferer used a recycling box to help him jump to his death from a footbridge.

Family and friends of Edward Sumner, from Shenley Church End, told Milton Keynes Coroners Court of their shock that the keen bowls player had taken such drastic action, saying 'he had so much to live for'.

An inquest into the 79-year-old's death was held at the court in Crownhill yesterday, where friend Gerald Sharp detailed how he had spoken with him just minutes before his death on April 24 – when he was hit by a car after falling from a footbridge overlooking V3 Fulmer Street.

Gerald, who lived at the nearby Shenley Wood Village retirement complex, said: "It was funny he was there, as he had never been there before.

"I think if he was going to jump, then he was surprised to see me.

"Edward was a wonderful man and I shall miss him for the rest of my life."

Edward's elderly widow Grace, who was not present at the inquest, had previously told MK NEWS that her husband's 'pride had been hurt' by his bout of prostate cancer – having been diagnosed in 2014 and being forced to use a catheter.

Edward's granddaughter Charlotte told the court how the former postman was pining to meet his great granddaughter, who was born on his birthday on April 3 but who he never met.

She said: "He was looking forward to seeing her, and had so much to live for."

Ruling his death as a suicide, senior coroner Tom Osborne said: "Ted was a well-loved member of the community.

"The illness probably played on his mind more than anyone knew.

"But this was not a cry for help. It's very sad indeed."

Drunk man asked to headbutt officer

A DRUNK man who asked a police officer if he could headbutt him has been fined.

Damon Adams, 21, was found inebriated by a police officer in the ASDA superstore in Bletcham Way, Bletchley, at 1.15am on June 16.

When the officer recommended Adams was not served alcohol, the court heard how he began to use abusive language.

After calling him a number of derogatory terms, he was said to have threatened the officer by asking 'can I headbutt you?'

Adams, of Farthing Grove, Netherfield, pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly in public in the hearing at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court last week.

When asked to explain his actions, Adams replied: "I was just very drunk and angry. I get angry all the time. But it's no excuse."

Adams was ordered to pay a fine of £66, a £20 victim surcharge, £150 court costs and £85 costs.

Jada set for NEC appearance

A YOUNG singer who idolises Beyoncé and Alicia Keys is set to take to the NEC stage in Birmingham for a shot at a life-changing prize.

Jada Autumn, 12, from Tattenhoe, has progressed from two regional rounds to sing in the final of TeenStar, set to take place on July 25 at the NEC, which has a capacity of 15,643.

TeenStar offers singers, rappers and performers under the age of 19, the opportunity to play in front of industry experts and win multiple prizes.

The Shenley Brook End pupil said: "When I was young I loved singing, my dad was a rapper and he has helped me start out.

"I would like to sing as a career, but I also play netball which I love as well so I don't know which one I would choose."

The competition, which has given opportunities to Union J, Luke James and Jahmene Douglas, offers a number of prizes, including £5,000 to spend on act development and recording time.

Calls for GPs to work weekends

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

TWO-THIRDS of people say they would benefit from weekend GP services in Milton Keynes, an MKNews poll has found.

In a speech last month, Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt promised extra investment and help for under-pressure services, including plans to recruit 5,000 new GPs and 5,000 support staff.

But in return, GPs had to get on board with plans for weekend opening.

A recent seven-day-a-week GP trial in Yorkshire saw patients abandon the pilot scheme, with barely one in 10 weekend appointments being filled.

However, according to a surge of comments from Milton Keynes residents on social media, the appetite for weekend services is strong:

Janey Chandler said: "I hate having to take a day off work for a doctor's appointment. It takes me 1.5 hours each way on the bus to and from. So I have to take a whole day off, especially if I can't get a morning appointment."

Rachel Simpson Morse said: "People don't stop being ill at weekends! It's not as if our bodies say OK you can be ill Monday to Friday but weekends not allowed."

A spokeswoman for The Practice Group, which runs Broughton Gate Health Centre in Milton Keynes, said: "The Practice Group fully supports the principle of patients having seven-day access to primary care. We also believe patients should be able to book appointments earlier and later than is the norm."

Diane Gordon, Support Team Manager for Healthwatch Milton Keynes, added: "Opening GP surgeries on the weekend would definitely make life easier for those with busy weekday schedules, meaning they wouldn't have to take a day off work to see a doctor, for example."

GPs who offer weekend services in Milton Keynes:

- Broughton Gate Health Centre – Open 8am-8pm, seven days a week, including all Bank Holidays
- Wolverton Health Centre – Open on Saturday 8am-11.30am
- Hilltops Medical Centre – Offers pre-bookable appointments on Saturday from 8am-11.30am
- Asplands Medical Centre situated on the grounds of Milton Keynes Hospital open from 7am-10pm 365 days a year and no appointment required.

Woodstock Bakery to reopen

WOODSTOCK'S Artisan Bakery in Stony Stratford is set to re-open next week. New owners, Louise Salisbury and David Rixon took control on Wednesday and Louise is confident they'll be ready to open on Tuesday, July 14.

She said: "I'm really excited about it, it will be a high specification artisan bakery, we will deliver what the old premises did but more – I and my fellow investor didn't want to see the area without a bakery." David, who previously ran Giles Food, which he sold to Warburton's Bakery two years ago, said: "We will also be offering smoothies, sandwiches and salads." The new bakery will also be releasing a gluten free range.

Town to get around 1,400 new homes

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

MORE houses could be built in Newport Pagnell than is actually needed – just so the town can get a primary school to accompany the development.

The scheme is proposed in the town council's neighbourhood plan, which is currently out for consultation with residents until Sunday.

The Core Strategy, which a planning document outlining how Milton Keynes will develop, places a demand on the rural Milton Keynes area for 1,760 new homes before 2026.

Newport Pagnell is expected to bear the brunt of providing these homes, and land for 613 homes still needs to be found.

But if the town decided only to build the 613 homes required, it would not get the required infrastructure – namely a primary school.

So the town council has instead opted for more homes in order to get the new primary school.

The town's Mayor, Phil Winsor, said: "We can be sure new housing is coming to the town.

"The challenge then was not to find a way to stop development - but rather to manage the change in the best way possible for the town.

"To ensure we get a new primary school, including a preschool, and healthcare facilities, the Plan proposes more homes than are required by the Core Strategy.

"If we had limited the Plan to the Core Strategy numbers, it would severely impact on the infrastructure that could be provided and would place burdens on facilities that are already stretched.

"The good news is that residents seemed to be really behind the idea."

The additional homes would total around 1,400, with the majority being built on the Tickford Fields site on the outskirts of the town – of which Milton Keynes Council is one of the owners.

Do you agree that Newport Pagnell should build more homes, just so it can get a school? Share your views online at www.mkweb.co.uk.

Fears over bid to increase parking

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A PLANNING application has been submitted to Milton Keynes Council for 83 more parking spaces for employees at Norfolk and Ashton House in Central Milton Keynes.

The spaces will replace a green space between the iconic 20th century building and the YMCA.

The new owners of the building, Commercial State Group (CSG), say the spaces are needed to attract tenants.

But Linda Inoki, chairman of campaign group Xplain, said: "If we rip up our landscape every time someone wants more parking, we will soon end up with an unliveable, unattractive CMK [that is] choked with traffic."

Steven Hemming, from property manager Lambert Smith Hampton, which is acting on behalf of CSG, said parking is essential to encourage major businesses to come to the city.

Mr Hemming said: "Fifty per cent of the office space has been vacant for a number of years. With dedicated parking and internal refurbishment we want the space to attract businesses to Milton Keynes, rather than see them go to Luton or Bedford.

Parking plan: The land earmarked for parking spaces

"We aim to try to save some of the trees and some of the green space."

As well as parking spaces, CSG has put in a separate application to create a new entrance to the building after complaints it was not clear.

The plans for a new entrance include a large rectangle elevation across the front of the building with a ramp and lights.

Mrs Inoki added: "Ironically, to perpetrate this architectural travesty, they plan to destroy two public parking spaces."

But, CSG also plans to reopen the bench area around the Octo sculpture, designed by Wendy Taylor as a tribute for Baron Richard Lleweyn-Davis, one of the original architects of Milton Keynes. The area has been closed for months after someone tripped on a loose paving stone.

What do you think about the plans? Visit www.mkweb.co.uk.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

Setting off: Walkers at MK Midnight Moo 2015

Hundreds walk 10 miles to raise cash for hospice

MORE than 1,200 women took part in the annual MK Midnight Moo on Satruday to raise urgently-needed funds for Willen Hospice. Setting off at midnight from intu Milton Keynes, the walkers, including MK NEWS reporter Jessica Duncan, walked a 10-mile route across redways in MK, flanked by a huge team of volunteers. It is predicted the event raised around £80,000 for the hospice – enough to pay for eight days of care.

Jessica said: "It was an amazing night, full of inspirational women uniting for such a great cause. I have already signed up for next year."

'Unofficial taxi ranks' concern

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

CONCERNS around Milton Keynes taxi passengers being duped into taking illegal journeys will be discussed by councilors.

The subject of where certain vehicles pick passengers up has caused 'tension' within the industry, according to one driver.

Hackney carriages can be hailed at official ranks or on grid roads, while private hire vehicles are pre-booked.

But the hackney carriage industry has raised concerns that private hire vehicles are setting up unofficial ranks near hackney carriage ranks, including one outside Milton Keynes Central rail station.

The confusion could lead to commuters taking an illegal and uninsured private hire journey.

Peter Kirkham, of the Hackney Carriage Association in Milton Keynes, said: "We need more enforcement officers out checking journeys have been pre-booked, and taking action if that driver has blagged."

Ray Stocker, a director for Eezy Cabs MK, said: "It's an ongoing issue and there is tension between the two. But it's only caused by the council's dithering on the subject."

Councillor Catriona Morris is the chair of the Regulatory Committee that will discuss the problem in a meeting tonight at the Civic Offices.

She told MK NEWS: "There shouldn't be a problem, but there clearly is one. We needed a review of all ranks."

SHOULD YOU CASH IN YOUR PENSION TO BUY AN INVESTMENT PROPERTY?

Under the new Pension Freedom rules anyone aged over 55 with a money purchase pension can now cash it in and invest the proceeds into an investment property otherwise known as a buy to let.

However before you decide to do this do consider the consequences.

Only the first 25% of your pension is tax free when you encash it. The balance is taxed at your marginal rate of Income Tax which means at a rate of 20%-45%! So you could lose up to a third of your pension fund to Income Tax on encashment! Furthermore you will incur costs such as stamp duty, legal fees and surveyors' fees. The property will also need to be furnished.

Once the property is let out you will incur further costs each year such as letting agents fees, buildings insurance, repairs and maintenance and Income Tax on your rental income.

Then there is the hassle of actually managing the property including possible void periods when the property is between tenancies either because a tenant leaves and a new one isn't replaced immediately or because you need to redecorate and/or refurbish the property.

Tony Byrne
Managing Director
Wealth And Tax Management
Chartered and Certified Financial Planner and author of Wealth Magic

When the property is eventually sold the gain will be subject to Capital Gains Tax. When you die the property will form part of your estate and be subject to Inheritance Tax.

As property is an illiquid form of investment you may have to wait a long time to sell it when market conditions are bad.

Will the large amount of money in pensions available to invest in buy to let properties of itself cause an over supply of investment properties and result in rents falling? That would be very ironic indeed.

If you already own property and your pension is your only significant investment then by re-investing your pension money into an investment property you are putting all of your eggs into one basket. This lack of diversification leaves you very vulnerable to weakness in the UK property market.

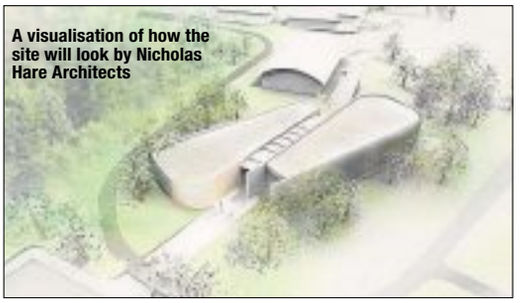
Museum in bid to raise £500,000

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk



A visualisation of how the site will look by Nicholas Hare Architects

MILTON Keynes Museum has launched a campaign to raise the £500,000 needed to ensure its expansion delivers 'the best museum in the country'.

Last year the museum and Milton Keynes Council announced they had jointly received Heritage Lottery funding to create two new galleries to complete the city's story, as well as a new collections store and other site improvements.

Plans are well advanced, but to do justice to the modern Milton Keynes story – from planning and pioneers through to the reality of homes, business, education, transport, city centre, sports, culture, leisure and 'the people's story', will cost an additional half a million pounds.

A host of local businesses attended the launch of the museum's fundraising bid to learn how they and others can get involved as patrons of the redevelopment.

There are also opportunities for MK companies and individuals to sponsor areas of the existing site, which will be enhanced as part of the project. They include the street of shops, hall of transport, print room, connected earth gallery and the current reception building, which will be turned into an education centre.

Museum Director Bill Griffiths said: "It is the passion and spirit of local people that built and has brought the museum this far. Now we hope Milton Keynes will get behind us to help us build a museum for them that is the best museum in the country."

Among partners already involved are Marshall Amplification, Red Bull, Niftylift, The Parks Trust, MK Dons and the Open University as well as the museum's heritage partners, Living Archive and the City Discovery Centre.

If Stage 2 funding is secured later this year, building will start in 2016, with opening of the new galleries planned for spring 2018, attracting at least 50,000 visitors a year.

More information can be found on the museum website www.mkmusem.org.uk . Or email info@mkmuseum.org.uk to receive details of how to get involved in building a museum fit for the city's future.

crowds to carnival

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

CARNIVAL-GOERS bathed in brilliant sunshine as a world record was smashed in Newport Pagnell on Saturday.

A roasting 28C welcomed revelers to Riverside Meadow where dance duo Sam Attwater and Vicky Ogden led the carnival parade through town.

Visitors were also watched a world record enter the books as John Evans held 12 tyres on his head for just over 10 seconds.

Newport Pagnell deputy mayor Derek Eastman, who is also a former mayor of Milton Keynes, said: "It's been an absolutely wonderful day and this is community spirit at its best."

Hazel West, treasurer on the organising committee which organised the event, said: "It seems busier than normal this year."

Meeting unsung

It soars through the skies, swooping and scooping up emergency patients, but there is so much more to Thames Valley Air Ambulance Service. Jessica Duncan met airborne anesthetist Dr Wassim Shamsuddin to find out more about the charity behind our much-loved care-copter.

IN SCRUBS for his day-job, Dr Wassim Shasuddin dons a red boiler suit and takes to the skies in his spare time.

JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

The anesthetist at Milton Keynes University Hospital has been saving lives with Thames Valley Air Ambulance (TVAA) since 2011.

You might ask why he fills all his free time working for the charity, but upon meeting him I could see it was his 'passion' keeping him in the air.

Unless they have helped you or someone you know TVAA remain the unsung heroes. But meeting with Dr Shasuddin, I was blown away by the amazing work of the crews.

Dr Shasuddin, 35, started volunteering for the charity in 2011 before he was able to take on a paid role more recently.

Being part of a team of pilots and paramedics at the charity, not only are they able to attend incidents all over the city in 15 minutes, but with highly trained crew members like Dr Shasuddin they are able to immediately start to treat patients at the scene.

The air ambulance often only attends people with the most serious trauma injuries. As a result, timing is key, but with their specialist equipment, including a chest compression system, ultrasound and blood, Dr Shasuddin said: "We are able to bring the resuscitation department to the road side and make the most of what is referred to as the 'golden hour', the time we have following a traumatic injury to prevent life changing damage.

"We can provide treatment in 15 minutes instead of 30 to 45 minutes by road.

"But it is more about the medical expertise we are sending to the scene as well as the time it takes for the helicopter to transport that team."

In Milton Keynes Dr Shasuddin said he has mostly attended collisions between cars and pedestrians, drownings, in particular at the Blue Lagoon, and stabbings.

He added: "As a result of my work with TVAA I have really been able to develop my trauma skills which obviously benefits my work at the hospital.

"My colleagues at work notice it and I think junior doctors would really benefit from this environment as instead of being able to consult with colleagues at the hospital or do another scan, you have to use your knowledge to make quick decisions.

"Milton Keynes Hospital and my family are very supportive and see this is my passion and is something beneficial to others.

"One day someone you know or yourself may need our help, but it does depend on charity funding.

"It is a service provided by the people for the people."

Knitters and natters: Ana Sanchez-Forner at The Woolshop on Newport Pagnell High Street

Having a good old yarn at knitting club

KNITTERS will be casting off life's stresses and strains at The Woolshop Knitting Club in Newport Pagnell.

The skill-sharing workshop – which aims to improve knitting techniques to achieve a professional finish in garments – is welcoming new members.

Originally based in Olney, the club has recently moved to The Woolshop on High Street and is run by owner Ana Sanchez-Forner.

Ms Sanchez-Forner said: "The club is very well attended, and we're all up for a good laugh and a chat.

"We all contribute to one another's projects, giving advice and ideas.

"Don't worry if you think you are a beginner with nothing to share. We all bring ideas to the pot including directional shaping, invisible vertical and horizontal seams, picking up dropped stitches and many more.

"We only ask for contributions towards tea and coffee – and sometimes cake – if we're not on a diet."

One attendee of the workshop said: "Ana is a lovely lady and, being a total beginner, I find her patience and design ideas unbelievable. I would encourage anyone interested in knitting to come and join us. We are a chatty bunch."

The club meets at The Woolshop on Newport Pagnell High Street every Thursday at 2pm-4pm and 6pm-8pm.

For more information, call Ana on 01908 990101.

Gavin to attend 17 World Cup games

BY CHRIS KNIGHTS
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A RUGBY-MAD fan has splashed out more than £2,000 on his Rugby World Cup dream and bagged a remarkable 17 tickets for the competition.

Gavin Barringer, 28, from King Edward Street, New Bradwell, is attending all but one of the fixtures with his father Timothy – including all three matches at stadiummk.

Along with these local fixtures, Gavin is also watching the opening match between England and Fiji, and has tickets for the quarter final fixtures at Twickenham and Cardiff.

The Rugby World Cup kicks off on September 18, and Gavin has been preparing for the competition for the last four years.

He said: "After the Olympics and watching the 2011 World Cup in New Zealand, we said we could not miss this opportunity.

"I have not really had a birthday or Christmas present for the last four years – it has all been a bit of rugby money here and there. I have so far saved £2,390 for the occasion and I am hoping that covers everything.

Score: Gavin Barringer's haul includes quarter final tickets

"Of course, we would love to get tickets for the semi-finals and even the final itself, but getting those is impossible and expensive."

Gavin's wife Donna set up a Rugby World Cup bank account for her husband four years ago and has 'allowed' him to pursue his dream, in return for a holiday to the USA in 2013.

But rather than focusing on following England, Gavin tried to get tickets to see as many different nations as possible.

He added: "We never really were exclusively looking at England - it was about ticking off teams. We do enjoy watching the matches, but the build-up and the atmosphere can sometimes eclipse the game itself.

"We wanted to go to cities we have never been to and meet fans we will probably never see again."

Keeping cool in a

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

THE heatwave scorching a trail across Milton Keynes led to some surprising consequences last week. Train passengers had their journeys interrupted, shops ran out of fans and local vets dealt with overheated pets.

A local veterinary centre in Milton Keynes received a 'phenomenal surge of calls' from pet-owners seeking advice as temperatures rose to an unbearable high last week.

Willows Veterinary Centre in Milton Keynes dealt with a number of worried customers whose pets were suffering from heatstroke yesterday – including two Guinea Pigs.

Dawn Kent, Practice Manager of Willows Veterinary Centre said: "The amount of comments posted on our social media sites for tips was staggering!

"Lots of pet-owners forget animals suffer from the heat too. Dogs can burn their feet on pavements. If fish are in bowls near windows that get a lot of light - they can boil.

"Symptoms of heatstroke in animals can include difficulty in breathing, dribbling/mouth open, inactivity, floppyness and obvious distress.

"With guinea pigs you must immediately soak a towel in cool (not cold) water and wrap round them until they show signs of recovering.

"Don't give them anything to drink until they can stand and support themselves, then offer small amounts from a spoon, or syringe if you feel confident doing this."

For more tips on how to treat your animals visit http://www.willowvet.co.uk/news/

From parasols to iced lollies, the keepers at Woburn Safari Park made sure that precautions were in place to stop their animals from overheating. Parasols were erected in Desert Springs, home to a loveable mob of meerkats, trying to stay cool in the shade

Amur tiger, Minerva, is lucky enough to have his very own private pool in the tiger enclosure, which proved the perfect method for cooling down on such hot days.

Meanwhile, the American Black bears were treated to special iced lollies. Their keepers freeze water and lots of different fruit to give the bears a refreshing and fun way to cool down.

Advice: Willow Veterinary Centre is warning people to look out for your small pets in the hot weather. From left: Bethan Pry, Bradley Hill and Elizabeth MacKay.

WONDERING WHEN THE NEXT HEATWAVE WILL BE? NEED TIPS ON HOW TO KEEP YOURSELF, YOUR FAMILY AND YOUR PETS COOL DURING THE HOT WEATHER? HEAD TO MKWEB FOR THE LATEST UPDATES, ADVICE AND TIPS.

Cooling down: Meerkats and tigers and bear, oh my.

Splashing out on paddling pools and fans

THE summer heatwave triggered a significant uplift in sales of paddling pools and fans in Milton Keynes.

Clayton's (Pound-and-Bargain store) in Newport Pagnell was one of many to sell out of paddling pools and fans.

Lucie Brennan, who works at the store said: "It's been crazy. We've had to make two separate trips to London to re-boost our summer stock.

"We saw so many customers rushing to get fans and other items to cool themselves down last week. It's been manic. But good for business, of course."

Milton Keynes' Argos store also saw sales of paddling pools double compared to previous weeks as the city took to cool off in one of the hottest periods for years.

Lauren Slater, Outdoor Toys Buyer for Argos, who works in the MK head office said: "It's no surprise our customers are snapping up outdoor items to make the most of the wonderful weather we've been having.

"Sales are soaring along with the temperatures as families look to cool off and relax outdoors."

For many, such a move has provided financial security and the means to enjoy the perfect retirement lifestyle with over 20 superb rural and coastal locations to choose from.

Stage set for relaxed panto performance

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

AUDIENCES will see a return of the 'relaxed performance' of the Christmas pantomime Aladdin at Milton Keynes Theatre.

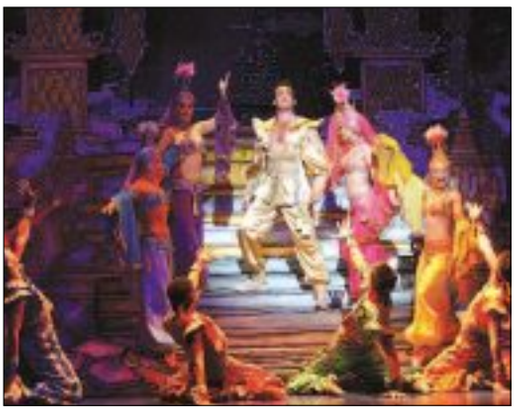
Last year's matinee performance of Peter Pan saw the theatre transformed to better suit viewers with a variety of disabilities.

The special shows are aimed at people with learning disabilities, autism spectrum conditions, or those who make involuntary noises.

Hundreds of children and adults who don't always feel welcome or comfortable in a formal theatre auditorium turned out to see the last show.

A spokesman from Milton Keynes Theatre said: "Everybody should have the chance to enjoy live theatre.

"If the show you're watching takes you into another world and makes you forget about everything else, then you become part of a magical journey that's like nothing else you will experience. Everybody should have that chance."



A performance of Aladdin at Milton Keynes Theatre in 2011

The relaxed performance is as funny and entertaining as any other performance but the atmosphere in the auditorium is less formal and some small changes are made to sound levels and lighting effects.

Milton Keynes Theatre's relaxed performance of Aladdin is to be held on Monday January 6 at 2.30pm.

For the relaxed performance, Milton Keynes Theatre is also looking for a corporate partner that will add the names of some very special people to their gift list.

For more information or to have an informal discussion about this please contact Linda Davies on 01908 547641 or email lindadavies@theambassadors.com

TESTAMENT of Youth is a powerful story of love, war and remembrance, based on the First World War memoir of writer, feminist and pacifist, Vera Brittain.

Woburn Safari Park's RANGER BOB tells us what's been going on for animals and staff this summer

THE animals and staff have been enjoying all the recent beautiful sunshine recently.

The Humboldt penguin chicks have been venturing down to the pool for swimming lessons from mum and dad and the lion cubs have been basking in the warm weather.

The five cubs now all have names and the two females were chosen by the public - Kamara and Zuri. They're getting up to lots of mischief and helped dad Kasanga have a very special first Father's Day this year!

In August, the Animal Encounters team will host a Penguin Charity Weekend in aid of the Punta San Juan Project in Peru, which works towards protecting Humboldt penguins. Visitors can attend at no extra cost to standard admission and there will be raffles, fun games and special penguin feeds and talks. I can't wait!

Father's Day this year was also the longest day of the year, so it was fitting that World Giraffe Day also fell on the same day.

The Reserves team worked hard to raise money for the Giraffe Conservation Foundation through raffles, lucky dips and special mini VIP trips to see the giraffes up close. Don't worry if you missed out though, we have availability on our Up Close Encounters with the giraffes throughout the summer – I always enjoy seeing visitors' faces when I take them up close to the beautiful herd here.

THE last procession for Wolverton Carnival took to the streets in 1976. Now, the first ever joint Wolverton and Greenleys Carnival is aiming to bring the communities together on Sunday, July 12.

Beginning at 12pm with a loud and colourful procession leaving from Tesco, it will pass Creed Street and move on to St George's Way. Once there, the procession will wind its way through Green Lane and Stacey Avenue, before travelling the length of Gloucester Road. The parade will then cross the V5 into Greenleys and finish at The Wolverton Town Sports and Social Club at 1pm.

When the procession is complete, a mixture of stalls and performers will be on show at the Galleon up until 9pm.

Acts such as Joe Scripps, Manny & the Coloured Sky, Kundalini Fire and The Estrellas have been confirmed. Local children from Greenleys First School and Spirit Performing Arts will also put on performances.

The theme for this year's Carnival is 'Film and Theatre', so why not dress up, go along and have some fun?

jesuschristsuperstar

MK LIFE spoke with former X-Factor finalist and actress Rachel Adedeji as the tour of Jesus Christ Superstar comes to Milton Keynes Theatre.

Until Saturday, the Andrew Lloyd Webber show will be taking over the city stage and Rachel hopes residents turn out to see this musical masterpiece.

She said: "I play Mary Magdalene who is a prostitute who becomes a Christian woman following and supporting Jesus.

"I studied musical theatre before the X-Factor so even though Jesus Christ Superstar is a challenge I am learning a lot and having great fun.

"It is amazing to play alongside Glen Carter who played Jesus in the movie in 2000.

"I love the show and I think other people will too.

"The cast is full of great talent and Andrew Lloyd Webber's great music that you don't have to know the story or be religious to enjoy it."

What Your Agent Has To Say

Let the experts maximise price of your property

With the market place as buoyant as it is in most towns and cities, there has never been a better time to maximise the price of the property which you are selling. With most buyers in Bedford coming from out of town areas, investing in a corporate agent has never been so important.

Connells estate agents have seven local offices in around Bedford working together to maximise the price you achieve for your house with open days being the only way forward.

Finding the balance between maximising your price and being realistic as well as competitive can be the tricky part, but Connells Bedford is leading the way in the local market so there hasn't been a better time to sell with us. For more information please call Jack Goodacre on 01234 345303

THE NEW MINI CLUBMAN

Another new chapter has opened in the regeneration of the MINI model family, with the debut of the new MINI Clubman. Following the success of the re-energised MINI 3-door Hatch and the successful launch of the MINI 5-door Hatch, the new model offers customers a premium vehicle featuring the highest level of ride refinement ever seen in a MINI.

The car's much-loved signature design feature – its split rear doors – are retained, while accessibility and everyday usability are further enhanced thanks to four full-sized side doors. The resulting car is a powerful fusion of sleek lines, innovative touches and first-rate materials with generous space for five occupants, excellent luggage capacity and classic MINI driving characteristics.

With a more mature and sophisticated design, the new MINI Clubman's dimensions are larger than those of the previous generation MINI Clubman. It's also 270 mm longer and 73 mm wider than the MINI 5-door Hatch, with a wheelbase which is 100 mm larger. The boot has a volume of 360 litres, which can be extended to 1,250 litres by folding the rear seats flat.

The latest generation of MINI TwinPower Turbo Technology engines have been installed under the bonnet, with three units available from launch – the MINI Cooper Clubman, MINI Cooper D Clubman and MINI Cooper S Clubman. CO2 emissions are as low as 109g/km, with fuel economy of up to 68.9mpg.

New to the MINI brand is an 8-speed Steptronic transmission, available as an option on the MINI Cooper S Clubman and the MINI Cooper D Clubman. Exceptional handling comes courtesy of a suspension set-up which is unique to the new MINI Clubman.

Numerous features make their MINI brand debut on the new Clubman, included an electric parking brake, full electric seat adjustment and the optional MINI Yours Interior Styles with backlit door bezels.

The new MINI Clubman includes MINI's highly acclaimed Navigation System as standard on all models, exemplifying the high levels of standard equipment across the range. Furthermore, every MINI Clubman also benefits from the MINI Excitement Package as standard, which features a projection of the brand logo on to the ground beneath the driver's side door mirror when the car is opened and closed, as well as extended interior lighting.

With production starting at MINI Plant Oxford later this year, order books for the New MINI Clubman are open at MINI dealers nationwide this week. Pricing for the newest member of the MINI family starts at £19,995 OTR for the MINI Cooper Clubman. Full range pricing and variant information is available below.

The MINI Clubman range starts with the MINI Cooper Clubman priced at £19,995 on-the-road. Prices for the MINI Cooper D Clubman diesel begin at £22,265 on-the-road while the higher performance MINI Cooper S Clubman starts at £22,755.

Vauxhall Viva

VIVA FOREVER?

Vauxhall revives an old favourite nameplate with the Viva, a citycar that's now the brand's entry level vehicle. Andy Enright reports.

Ten Second Review

The Vauxhall Viva is a city runabout that relies on substance to make sales. Is this a risky strategy? Not really. When it comes to the smallest cars, the most practical models make the biggest numbers and this 1.0-litre five-door hatch looks to have all the right objective figures sewn up.

Background

You're probably going to have defining memories of your childhood. One of mine is the black vinyl rear seats of my father's Vauxhall Viva and how they would become hotter than the surface of Venus during summer road trips around Spain. No air con, a rattly old 1.3-litre engine and suspension that owed more to horse and cart tech, that old Viva never let us down. So, if you'll forgive a certain personal indulgence here, it's great to see Vauxhall revive the badge for a new generation.

Clearly things have come on a long way since the last Viva rolled off the production line in 1979, after a sixteen-year run. Chevettes and Astras were then the way forward, but there's now space at the foot of Vauxhall's range for the Viva to be reborn as a five-door citycar. Let's take a look at what's in store.

Driving Experience

The Viva has been built around Vauxhall's latest 1.0-litre three-cylinder petrol engine. In this guise, it makes 75PS worth of power, which is probably about adequate for a citycar. More engines may be announced in time, but the powerplant requirements for a small city scoot like this are usually quite simple. Models of this sort don't cover enough miles for a diesel engine to be worth fitting and lighter is better if you want the sort of jinky manoeuvrability delivered by the best urban runabouts. This ECOTEC 1.0-litre engine drives the front wheels via a five-speed manual gearbox and the suspension and steering has been optimised for comfort on the sort of pock-marked streets that typify most British cities. Like its bigger brother, the Adam, the Viva gets a 'City' mode that lightens the steering even further to help take the effort out of parking.

Design and Build

Vauxhall's previous citycar offering, the Agila, was a model that never really got the credit it deserved, but the Viva looks set to do better. The styling is neat and assured, with none of the overtly cutesy flourishes that make certain small cars very gender specific. The Viva could well appeal to lads as well as lasses, with its purposeful front end, signature Z-slash that runs through the door handles in the side swage line, plus some neat alloy wheel designs. It's available in ten exterior paint colours with a variety of 14- to 16-inch wheel choices. Designed by Mark Adams' team in Europe, the Viva is built at GM Korea's plant in Changwon and is a sister car to the new generation Chevrolet Spark model that Britain now won't get.

The interior looks well built and maturity is again a dominating theme. There's a signal lack of over-design, with a simple but classy two-dial instrument cluster, plenty of headroom, a chunky steering wheel and clearly legible minor controls. If you'd prefer something a bit more outré and personalised, then it's simple to step up to the brand's trendier ADAM model, though you'd need a bigger budget to do that. At 3,700mm long, the Viva is marginally longer than a Fiat 500 but has space for five inside (just!) due to a wheelbase that's fully 100mm longer than that of a Peugeot 108.

Market and Model

There's only only a single five-door bodystyle and a single 1.0-litre 75PS petrol engine on offer with drive via a manual gearbox. Prices start at around £8,000, ranging up to around £9,500 - competitive figures for the citycar segment. Still, at least there's a reasonable choice of trim. The VIVA range consists of two main spec levels: SE, and SL which is a trim name carried over from the original Vauxhall Viva. There are Air Con and ecoFLEX versions of the SE trim, giving customers a choice of four decently-specified models (SE, SE Air Con, SE ecoFLEX and SL). Both VIVA trim levels feature a tyre pressure monitoring system, city mode steering, lane departure warning, cruise control with speed limiter and front fog lights with cornering function. Safety items include ESP with traction control, cornering brake control, emergency brake assist, straight line stability control and hill start assist. All VIVA models also feature six airbags, AM/FM radio with aux-in and steering wheel controls, electric front windows, electric/heated mirrors and remote central door locking.

The green-minded VIVA SE ecoFLEX variant goes further, offering buyers a front lip spoiler, an extended rear spoiler with LED brake light and ultra-low rolling resistance tyres. At the top of the range, SL trim features electronic climate control, Morocanna seat trim, leather steering wheel and 15-inch alloy wheels. Other highlights include six speakers, USB audio connection, Bluetooth music streaming and mobile phone portal. Options available include a Winter Pack (heated seats and steering wheel), rear parking sensors and an electric glass sliding sunroof.

Cost of Ownership

The 1.0-litre engine makes some decent economy figures, with the ecoFLEX model recording 65.7mpg on the combined fuel economy cycle. Even if you don't go for that version, you'll still see 62.8mpg. Around town, that figure drops to 52.3mpg in the ecoFEX and 50.4mpg in non-ecoFLEX branded cars. Emissions range between 99g/km and 104g/km, so choose carefully if you want to minimise your bills.

Residual values for the Viva have yet to be calculated, but any small car with an economical engine and a decent warranty tends to stack up well when it comes to retaining value.

Summary

The Vauxhall Viva is clearly taking the softly-softly approach to sales. It's relying on buyers to appreciate its common sense and its no nonsense approach to things. And it's hoping they'll value its maturity and quality over styling gimmicks and marketing stunts. Okay, so the Viva badge unashamedly plunders a bit of retro appeal, but Vauxhall needs this car to be noticed.

Ultimately though, the basics just have to be right for a model in this segment. The nation's best-selling citycar is the Hyundai i10, a car that does all the important, sensible things really well. This Viva looks to have been designed to follow suit.

Time will tell. The early signs look promising, Vauxhall having given this car every chance to succeed. A British badge with German heritage from an American company on a car that's screwed together in Korea? It just proves that even with tiny cars, manufacturers have to think big.

Green released from Dons and signs for Luton

New pastures: For Danny Green

WINGER Danny Green has been released from MK Dons and has gone to League Two Luton Town.

The midfielder made 18 appearances for Dons last season and bagged two goals, which included one against Port Vale in the first round of the FA Cup back in November, and an 84th-minute equaliser against Rochdale a few games later.

The timing of the release is interesting, given he was present at pre-season training when the squad reconvened last Tuesday for its first training session since promotion back in May.

The club is in the Republic of Ireland for a pre-season training camp, which is expected to last for two weeks, but obviously Green, 26, has not made the trip to Dublin.

However, on the other side of things, winger Daniel Powell, who had an option exercised in his contract this summer, has signed a new deal to extend his stay at stadiummk.

The winger, who progressed through the Academy set-up, has put pen to paper on a two-year contract, which will see him remain with the club until at least June 2017.

Powell, 24, played a key role in the Dons' promotion-winning campaign of 2014/15, scoring 10 goals in 49 appearances, including important winners against Notts County and Rochdale.

"It's been the perfect year for me," Powell told MK Dons Player. "It's been a project of the club's to get into the Championship and now hopefully I'll be able to enjoy two more years of playing at that level, if not higher.

"I've been here since I was 14, so it's been a while now. I've seen the club grow and grow and to be a part of that is a great privilege."

The first of three friendlies in the Republic of Ireland, which take place on consecutive days, is due to take place on Monday.

ATHLETICS

Rutherford pushed at British Championships

OLYMPIC Gold medalist Greg Rutherford picked up another win at the weekend but the long jump champion was pushed closer than many would have thought.

Competing in the British Championships at Birmingham, Rutherford had a close competition with Dan Bramble.

He jumped 7.97m after round one but Bramble responded with jumps of 8.03m in the second round and 8.04m in round four.

Rutherford settled the issue in the fifth round with a leap of 8.11m in the fifth round and admitted to the UK athletics website that his recent performances in the Diamond League have given him a lot of confidence.

"I've dealt with the pressure of the Diamond League and come away with the win," said Rutherford.

"I felt pretty flat out there and things weren't going as I expected.

"I take my hat off to Dan Bramble because I thought he was going to beat me today.

"To jump and win today with another qualifying mark is great.

"Heading towards the World Championships I have to be a lot better and replicate what I was doing in Oslo – if I do that I think I will put myself in a position to finally win that title."

Joey Duck and Chris Clarke placed fourth in their respective 200m finals.

With the glut of top class British sprinters Duck placed second in heat two with a time of 23.70 and then clocked 23.89 for fourth in the final.

Likewise, Clarke finished second in his heat with a time of 20.80 and then ran 20.91 for his fourth place in the final.

The three Curtis brothers must have made javelin history as a family entry but unfortunately all three were down on their bests.

Redford Curtis finished eighth throwing 58.90m, Jackson ninth with 57.25m and Freddie tenth with 56.96m.

Greg Rutherford jumped 8.11n to win the event

Sohal hits 67 to help Stony secure a draw

STONY Stratford stopped the rot by holding on to a draw against Rushton in the Northamptonshire Premier League.

Alex Strong picked up four wickets as Rushton finished the first innings 220-8, but it was 67 from Vicram Sohal in the second innings that helped Stony claim a draw.

Wesley Fernando's 47 was also a magnificent effort as Stony recorded 192-8 in the second innings while Jamie Baxter saw off 35 balls on his way to 11 not out.

In the Cherwell Cricket League Great Brickhill saw off Teddington by five wickets as a five-wicket haul from James Clark put the villagers in control.

Wolverton Town were beaten by 75 runs against Twyford. Idrees Butt scored 4-56 as Twyford picked up 209-8 in the first innings but Town were bowled out for 134.

In the Four Counties League, New Bradwell beat Milton Keynes City by four wickets, despite the latter having Saqib Akhlaq unbeaten on 64. The rest of City could only manage 183 though as New Bradwell beat them in the 42nd over.

It is still neck and neck between North Crawley and Milton Keynes at the top with both sides winning.

Matt Goss scored 64 as North Crawley beat New City (Milton Keynes) by 136 runs while 63 from David Garner was enough for Milton Keynes to secure a two-wicket success over Eaton Bray.

GYMNASTICS

SNUGS members bound for World Gymnestrada

GYMNASTS from SNUGS, the special needs gymnastic unit based in Milton Keynes, are heading to Helsinki to compete in the World Gymnestrada.

The GB Disability Squad met at SNUGS' base next to Woughton Leisure Centre on Rainbow Drive in Leadenhall to prepare the routine for the world event, which will see 5,000 people competing.

As part of that, a mass display will also take place involving every world gymnast taking part and all of the participants are looking forward to travelling to the Finnish capital on Friday, July 10.

Harry Sharpe, who has been a coach at SNUGS for 21 years, said: "We have people here training from all over the country including Southampton, Hull, Chester and Warrington and it's nice for us to invite them here."

Harry's daughter Jannette, who is part of the squad, said she was looking forward to going to Helsinki and strutting her stuff in the Gymnestrada.

Red Bull engine woes go on

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

THINGS didn't go well again for Daniel Ricciardo as an engine electrical issue forced the Australian to retire from the British Grand Prix at Silverstone.

With the relationship between Red Bull and engine provider Renault at an all-time low, the timing of the fault could not have been worse.

There was a ray of hope for Red Bull, though, as Russian Daniil Kvyat managed to come home sixth.

Kvyat made a late bid to overtake Williams' Valtteri Bottas on the last lap but the Finn managed to hold on to fifth, with Russian Kvyat having to settle for sixth. Lewis Hamilton crossed the line first.

Kvyat said he enjoyed the race.

"We were really competitive today, the race was really fun, a little crazy with the rain, and I was enjoying myself," he said.

"The team have done a great job and the car is handling really well. We will keep pushing to improve and move forward over the next few races."

It hasn't been a great time recently for Ricciardo and he said he hopes for better luck by the time of the next race after another disappointing weekend.

He said: "I was really optimistic and excited for this weekend but it didn't work out for us on the day. We suffered an electrical problem which forced us to retire. I could feel the loss of power going into turn seven, we tried circulating for a few laps to try and fix it, we also tried to reboot the engine in the pits but unfortunately it didn't work.

"The last few races haven't been kind to us but that's racing. We have some time off to look forward to and we'll go into Hungary a little more hopeful as the track there should suit us better."

The result means that Kvyat has once again out-performed his more illustrious teammate but remains nine points behind Ricciardo with 27 on the board.

Red Bull team principal Christian Horner admitted the weather played its part in making for a tremendous race.

He said: "The weather produced an exciting British Grand Prix, adding an interesting twist which hopefully the fans enjoyed.

"Dany drove a great race, and all weekend he has done a good job.

"He possibly could have been in contention for a podium if we had pitted him earlier when he was fighting with Sebastian, and he also spun on his in-lap, but nonetheless, he drove a very strong race."

The Hungarian Grand Prix is the next race on the calendar on Sunday, July 26.

Sixth-place finish: Danil Kyvat makes a pit stop. His team-mate Daniel Ricciardo was forced to retire due to an electrical issue.

Victory for Napier Racing at Summer Classic race festival

NAPIER Racing took another double Class victory at the Summer Classic race festival at Spa Francorchamps.

The Milton Keynes-based endurance Lotus Elise sportscar team qualified 16th from a massive 64-car grid on Friday.

The infamously changeable weather in the Eifel mountains remained dry the entire weekend adding to a great festival atmosphere.

Excellent race conditions combined with a great starting grid position to see driver Andy Napier finish both races first in class by over a lap of the four-mile circuit ahead of the next car in class.

The team has now racked up an impressive eight trophies over four weekends at the mid-point of the season.

Andy and the Napier Racing team will return to the track this Sunday with CSCC at Rockingham Motor Speedway in Northants.
